The extra-ordinary group that owns Maison Chanzy ...

is part of a diverse range of luxury businesses largely owned by a Parisian based group of highly educated specialist financial and economic graduates from a number of the world's most prestigious universities.

OLMA's other financial interests include:

1. The Domaine Chateau Signac

In the Southern Rhone Valley which has 33 Ha of vines and 54 Ha of scrub and forest.

2. A small, highly specialised luxury hotel group that are based in carefully selected upmarket tourist regions.

3. The famous hotel Le Montrachet in Puligny-Montrachet in France – which is a separate investment to the luxury hotel group mentioned above.

4. The 200-year-old Maison Henras Truffle Company

5. The 80-hectare Domaine Chanzy ...

one of the largest vineyard holders in Burgundy which produces brilliantly crafted & value wines from its 40 appellations which include 5 Clos and 2 Monopoles amongst their 11 Grand Cru and 16 Premier cru plots.

10. Caviar De Neuvic

(Is available in Australia online through thefrenchmarket.com.au is a French caviar producer...)

“After a career dedicated to development and agro food projects management in France and abroad, Laurent Deverlanges created a sturgeon farm to produce caviar.

He established the 20 hectares farm in the village of Neuvic on the banks of the Isle, the pioneer river for sturgeon breeding in Aquitaine in the 1980's.

Laurent Deverlanges unites a long-standing passion for pisciculture and a demanding and innovative business project.

He surrounded himself with a limited number of shareholders very implied though. They are from different backgrounds and make the company benefit from a wide range of luxury and art of living brand management experience. This diversity of profiles and their involvement enhances the strength of Caviar de Neuvic business model.”

About Domaine Chanzy

Historically located in Bouzeron, Chanzy has 80 hectares of vineyards now certified High Environmental Value level 3, spread over the three Côtes of Burgundy, each with an ancient history built with passion, aiming at best expressing the beautiful terroirs of our spectacular region.

Each vineyard plot is harvested, vinified, aged and bottled separately. Aging takes place in barrels which have been rigorously selected to respect the identity of each plot of vines.... this is how we transform the unique expression of each terroir. Chanzy.com

Chanzy has 80 hectares of vineyards and also has prestige appellations from Côte Chalonnaise. (They are the ...) Owner of ... 2 monopoles, 11 grands crus and 13 premier cru (sites and the grapes ...) are produced in the greatest respect of the Burgundy tradition.

Chanzy also holds the sole monopoly of the appellation Bouzeron Village: the Clos de la Fortune, a jewel of the AOC of 2.97 hectares of vines."

Pascal Iakovou, Luxsure.fr

"The greatest value and the most approachable Burgundies that I have tasted in my 12-25 days a year in Beaune over the past 16 years." JJ

I have visited Chanzy four times over the past 5 years, and each time have been astounded at the high and modern quality of both their White and Red Burgundies. On each visit, I was asked to pick up the agency for Australia, but knocked this offer back on the grounds that they were so good - and in the more reasonably priced instances, such good value - that they deserved a national distributor ... and we are mere a tiny restaurant retail group in the isolated Western Australia.

I.e. both the red and white reasonably priced appellations have marvellous quality fruit for these appellations, are brilliantly made and are great value.

In 2011, a very wealthy Parisian based Luxury Group, Olma, purchased the 40 Hectare Chanzy Domaine with its holdings across much of Burgundy and from basic appellations through Village, Premier and Grand Crus.

in 2017 they then invested in another 40Ha of Burgundian Vineyards and have also spent a fortune on the winery.

They also own Chateau Signac in the Rhone Valley and these wines are made with the same care and knowledge. They are amongst the greatest values that I have ever seen from these regions. JJ

DISCOVER LA MAISON CHANZY - WHO ARE ALSO NOW IN ...
Puligny-Montrachet!!!

Maison Chanzy now have a "Cellar Door" and a Wine Bar in Vincent Leflaive's old house, see the picture below ...

(And remember that Olma had already purchased the famous Hotel Le Montrachet In Puligny Montrachet!)

MAISON CHANZY

Maison Chanzy is located in the village of Bouzeron in the heart of Burgundy, just 3 kilometers south of Chagny. Vines were first planted at the domaine by monks from the Abbey of Cluny, once the largest church in Christendom. Maison Chanzy has 36 hectares of vineyards in the AOC classified areas of Bouzeron, Mercurey, Puligny-Montrachet, Rully, Santenay, and Vosne-Romanée.

Maison Chanzy produces around 250,000 bottles a year of red and white Burgundy wines from its 32 hectares of vineyards in Côte de Beaune, Côte de Nuit and Côte Chalonnaise, as well producing a range of wines on a négociant basis. The director of the estate is Jean-Baptiste Jessiaume, named Côte de Beaune Young Winemaker of the Year in 2012, and his wines have received recent awards from Decanter Magazine, Concours Des Grand Vins de France and the Guide Hachette. Jean-Baptiste uses new oak sparingly at Chanzy, allowing the fruit to come to the fore and retaining great freshness in each cuvée.

“Winemaking (has been) overseen by Jean-Baptiste Jessiaume, winner of the Côte de Beaune’s Young Winemaker of the Year in 2012. Based in Bouzeron on the Côte Chalonnaise, home of the resurgent Burgundian variety Aligoté, and with important holdings throughout the region, they’re an estate to follow.” Lay & Wheeler

“It is in the heart of the sixteenth century that the Chanzy Estate draws its origins. Witness of this time, the vaulted cellar presents on the field, architectural vestige dating from the Renaissance. Still used today, this magnificent cellar houses the barrels of Domaine Chanzy, historical figure of Bouzeron - the smallest appellation village of Burgundy - and its emblematic grape variety, Aligoté.

Chanzy stands out in Burgundy for its pursuit of excellent value for money.

The ambition of Chanzy is simple: to offer a unique experience around exceptional wines, vinified with the greatest care in the vats and cellars completely renovated and modernized. Pascal Iakovou, Luxsure.fr

The Wines

Domaine Chanzy Bourgogne "Les Fortunés" Pinot Noir 2019. Qty Avail. 100 doz. - $26

Production area/appellation: Côte Chalonnaise

Red Burgundy shows the complex aromas and flavours of the Pinot Noir variety with notes varying from red strawberries to black cherries, along with earth, spice, herbs, and flowers. It is typically a medium-bodied wine with high acidity that allows it to age well and pair easily with a wide range of foods.

Domaine Chanzy Clos de Vougeot Grand Cru Pinot Noir 2010. Qty Avail. 2 doz. - $288

Domaine Chanzy Mercurey "Les Bussières" Pinot Noir 2019. Qty Avail. 40 doz. - $43

Domaine Chanzy Nuits St Georges "Les St Georges" Premier Cru Pinot Noir 2014. Qty Avail. 2 doz. - $168

A product from a very good winemaker and marvellous quality fruit. Soft, elegant, fine, ethereal and long. Modern, clean winemaking encouraging and allowing delicious perfumed aromatics on both nose and palate. Lingers and lingers.

18.9 points, JJ

Domaine Chanzy Santenay "Gravieres" Premier Cru Pinot Noir 2017. Qty Avail. 25 doz. - $69

Domaine Chanzy Santenay "Les Cornières" Pinot Noir 2017. Qty Avail. 50 doz. - $49

For the price, this is serious. Perfumed. Ripe, soft, gentle, modern and textured. Serious length of fruit for a wine in this price range. Great length, lovely finish and lovely aftertaste.

18.7 points, JJ

It has beautiful dark ruby red shades and a bouquet of plums, raspberries and black currants that continues in the taste. The structure is silky soft, elegant and delicious with velvety tannins and an aftertaste that fortunately lasts a long time.

Domaine Chanzy Bourgogne Hautes Côtes de Beaune Chardonnay 2018. Qty Avail. 40 doz. - $33

Domaine Chanzy Mercurey 'Clos du Roy' Premier Cru Chardonnay 2018. Qty Avail. 20 doz. - $62

A pure and fresh scent of tart cranberry and wild raspberry rises from the glass. The palate of this wine makes the fruit more intense, adds a smokier, more sonorous flavor, while the body remains slender and translucent. Deep juiciness underpins it all and underlines both elegance and unforced balance.

93 points, Wine Enthusiast

Domaine Chanzy Meursault Chardonnay 2016. Qty Avail. 10 doz. - $93

This is not fine! It is a full flavoured, slightly viscous (as in the Gin Gin clone from Margaret River), warm, round and generous. It is long and French in style with its minerality and power, flavours and structures, and is almost opulent. The lovely acidity and marvellous length for this appellation pull it all back into line. Absolutely delicious for the price and marvellous aging potential.

18.7 points, JJ

Domaine Chanzy Puligny Montrachet "Les Reuchaux" Chardonnay 2019. Qty Avail. 10 doz. - $99

Domaine Chanzy Rully "Les Cailloux" Chardonnay 2017. Qty Avail. 20 doz. - $38

Long, subdued and classy. Fresh. Lovely finish and aftertaste. Yes, yes.

18.3 points, JJ

Creamy white peach notes and a degree of density/viscosity to the fruit that makes this stand out.

Medium toast oak adds creamy definition and a slight chewiness to the finish. Good length and persistence to close. A very smart food-friendly wine.

18 points, Barry Weinman, FineWineClub.com.au

A shy nose on this wine allows only glimpses of lemon and chalk. The palate continues with this understated elegance, presenting uncommon freshness for this vintage. Generosity is only apparent in slight heat on the finish. The body is poised and slender, revealing a fine-boned structure accentuated by lemon brightness. The finish is all about stone and freshness.

92 points, Wine Enthusiast

A ripe and nicely fresh nose reflects notes of quinine, matchstick, pear compote and a whiff of grapefruit. The sleek, intense and well-delineated flavors exude a subtle minerality on the dry and delicious if mild attenuated finish. This is not without several appealing attributes though the balance isn't quite as dialed in as one might like.

87 points, Burghound

Domaine Chanzy Santenay Premier Cru "Beaurepaire" Chardonnay 2019. Qty Avail. 5 doz. - $69

Domaine Chanzy Santenay Premier Cru "Les Gravières" Chardonnay 2018. Qty Avail. 5 doz. - $79
